“ I remember as a child growing up Aunt Janie home made buttermilk biscuits, I would go down to Aunt Janie & Uncle Jays most everyday, usually it was time for lunch or supper , or right after I would get off the school bus, Aunt Janie new I would becoming so she would always make couple extras just for me, if I didn't show up that day you can bet she would put them aside till I came the next time(I can hear her say, here she comes Jay) Aunt Janie always had a smile on her face and would always give me a great big hug, she was a very big influence on my life and I thank God for her and will certainly miss her as I know Uncle Jay you and Regina will to.
