“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Death is the enemy of all mankind, yet when it touches us personally, few receive the comfort they search for. In times like these I know I can find comfort in God's word. In John 5:28,29 He tells us " Do not be amazed at this, for the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." As the God and Father of tender mercies, He wants you to find comfort in Him through prayer (2 Cor 1:3).

“ I didn't know Jason but my sincere condolences are with his dear friends and family. In the Bible at Jeremiah 29:11 we are given encouragement, " For I well know the thoughts that I am thinking toward you, declares Jehovah, thoughts of peace, and not of calamity, to give you a future and a hope. " We have a wonderful future because those who have have died will enjoy life on earth. Acts 24:15; Psalms 37:11,29. And what a happy time that will be for you all and Jason.

“ I have such a sweet memory--- My husband, Mike and I were canoeing up the Wakulla and along came my son, Jeremy and Jason in a motorboat. They were grinning from ear to ear, both of them. I hope they are both grinning ear to ear right now in the presence of God; no more suffering; no more sorrow; only tears of joy (that is God's promise). Love is the part of us that lives on. It's the part of us that goes to God. God has no boundaries; not between Heaven and Earth; nor life and death. When you feel the warmth of Jason's love, know that it is him and he is with you. Love never dies. I know this to be true.

“ Jason had a laugh that could be heard from what felt like miles and it could light up a room, he also had the most charming smile I have ever seen. I have so many memories with him and Jon but some of the best were spent on the Wakulla River at night gigging. That was some of the most entertaining fun I have ever had. Our Senior Trip of 9 to the Bahamas was another memory I'll never forget. Jason had just dyed his hair "Eminem" blonde so that was what we nicknamed him for that cruise. My heart goes out to his precious daughter in whom he loved so much and of course to the entire family. I love you all very much, always have and always will.

“ Jason had the biggest and most beautiful smile I have even seen on anyone! You couldn't help but smile too! He was easy to be around...Once my son-n-law, and were able to remain close, lucky me. My heart goes out to Taylor, Marsha, Ernie and Jon, and John David and Vicky! You will be missed by all !!!
Love you buddy!
Until we meet again someday....
