

Jayne Hagan Hazlip

April 21, 1958 - April 4, 2026

Jayne Hagan Hazlip, 68, passed away on April 4, 2026, in her home in Havana, Florida. She was born on April 21, 1958 in Gainesville, Florida. Her parents were Elwood Lawson Hagan and Martha Fernandez Hagan.

Jayne studied music at the University of Florida, was an outstanding singer and was proud to have sung in a Christian group that recorded an album. Her husband, John Kirkland Hazlip, proposed to her on January 19, 1983, and they were married on May 28th that same year. They were married for 43 years when she passed. Jayne participated in clubs and events relating to her many hobbies, such as local homeschooling groups, LOGOS speech and debate club, Young Living Essential Oils, Stampin' Up, photography and the American Kennel Club. She loved arts and crafts and excelled at cooking. However, one of her favorite hobbies was snorkeling for scallops in St. Joe Bay, which she said brought her great peace.

She also raised and bred Retrievers. The first litter of puppies she raised were Labrador Retrievers and later it was Golden Retrievers. She truly loved her Goldens, who slept in her bedroom if not up on the bed. She started the Dusty and Luna Family and Friends Facebook page where she and the adopted puppy owners could proudly post their pictures and videos.

Jayne was the most joyous and happy person we have ever known. She found excitement in all of nature and in all God's creatures. She loved everything that grew in her garden and loved to cultivate flowers, fruits, and vegetables. Her faith in God and her love for His creation was an inspiration to all who knew her.

Jayne is survived by her husband John and her sons John (JK) Kirkland Hazlip IV, and Joseph (Joey) Lawson Hazlip. She also has a half-brother Paul "Sonny" Sutton in North Carolina.

A visitation will be held on Saturday, April 11, 2026, at 12:30 PM EST at Bevis Funeral Home, 200 John Knox Rd, Tallahassee FL. A funeral service will immediately follow at 1:30 PM. Internment will be at a later date at Forest Grove Cemetery, High Springs, Florida.

“ Jayne and I shared a special bond. We were both born in the same hospital ( Alachua General) in Gainesville just within hours of each other. Her Birthday was April 21 and mine was April 20. I will always remember our Birthdays. She will be missed and I know she is singing in Heaven!

“ There are not many souls as lovely as Jayne. She had a sweet, generous, humble spirit that was unique and rare in this world. She could see and genuinely appreciate beauty and value in people that others might effortlessly pass over. Her life was not easy, but I never once heard her complain. She spoke well of everyone and liked me in spite of my quirks and outright faults, which makes her a saint. She made everyone feel special. Her friendship was enduring; she never gave up on folks.

The most important people in her life were her family, and she was a wonderful wife to John and an excellent, loving mother to her precious boys JK and Joey, of whom she was so proud. She devoted her whole self to them, she cherished them, and her love for them goes on.

Jayne's spirit is alive and well. But she has left this place, the only context in which we have ever known her, and so it's times like these, and people like Jayne, that have a tendency to make us ask why. Why her? But I think God allowed Jayne to live a life of particular awareness that trusting Him daily is crucial...and maybe it became second nature to her. Maybe she was better equipped, therefore, to yield her spirit and her will to Him when things in life did not go as expected.

I imagine that, while her earthly death wasn't the plan she would have wished for herself and her family, she ultimately would not question God's decision. Her roots grew deep beside the River of Life.

As my heart aches and I search for answers, I am reminded again and again of Scripture and of Job's astounding response to deep loss — "The Lord gives, and the Lord takes away. Blessed be the name of the Lord." These are not easy words. But Jayne had faith, and I have faith, that these words are correct.

Both God and His sustaining care are sufficient, and one day He will make everything right. Here is the difficulty: that day is not today. But it is coming. That place that seems so far off in the distance will one day inevitably arrive. Count on it. He has never and will not ever disappoint our confidence in His promises.

Jayne, I was not half the friend to you that you were to me. I am glad God put you in my life. Knowing you was a gift. It was a privilege that I will always be grateful for and never forget. I will always remember you and, because of Jesus Christ, I hope to see you again some glad morning.

“ We were on tour with our church youth choir and staying in the home of some folks at a church we were visiting. They had a screened in pool at their home and the 5-6 of us were back there cutting up and having a good time when Jayne fell out of the screen into the backyard. She just disappeared and we all cracked up. I remember it because we all (including Jayne) laughed until we cried.

“ Jayne always called me a daughter...and she took her motherly role serious! My favorite memory was being able to spoil her for a mani/pedi when I was a broke college kid. We adored that memory together. I'm engaged now and when she found out- she'd always ask me how wedding planning was going, if I need anything, how can she help! She truly was an angel on Earth! She will be greatly missed
