

Jean Standland

March 8, 1928 - November 12, 2015

Jean Standland, 88, of Tallahassee, passed away on Thursday, November 12, 2015.

Jean was born in Jackson County Florida, to Finley Mitchell and Cora Duce Mitchell. In 1952, she moved to Tallahassee and worked at W.T. Edwards Hospital and remained with the State when it became Sunland Hospital retiring after thirty years. While working full time she devoted all of her spare time and energy to raising two daughters, teaching them how to be strong and loving women. She was an active member of East Hill Baptist Church. After retirement she and her husband, Alva Gray, remained living in Tallahassee but spent much of their time in Bascom, Florida, reestablishing the family farm, raising cattle and spending holidays at the farm with their extended family.

Jean was fortunate enough to have been retired longer than she worked. She and her family lived in the same home in Tallahassee for 59 years. Two years ago she moved into assisted living in Brookdale at Hermitage where she discovered her love of music, made new friends and was surrounded by caring staff.

Survivors include her husband of 63 years, A.G. Standland of Tallahassee; daughter, Kim Skelding (Jack) of Tallahassee; granddaughter, Jackie Skelding of Tallahassee; brothers, Billy Mitchell (Carol) of Tallahassee and Guyte Mitchell of Panama City and a very special family friend and devoted caregiver, Copedine Meadley of Woodville, Florida.

She was preceded in death by her parents and her daughter, Jena Holland.

A memorial Service will be held at 2:30 p.m. on Thursday, November 19, 2015 at Consulate Health Care, 1650 Phillips Road, Tallahassee, FL 32308.
