

Jene Rorex Lane

March 6, 1929 - July 15, 2023

Jene Rorex Lane, 94, of Tallahassee, Florida passed away on Saturday July 15, 2023. She was born in Harrisburg, Arkansas and later resided in Indiana (graduating from Bedford High School) before coming to Tallahassee in 1948.

Before retiring to travel for husband Max's work with Sears, Jene worked at Southeastern Telephone Company, as well as in a variety of administrative positions for the State of Florida. She also served as the Guidance Secretary and Registrar for Rickards High School from 1971 to 1984.

Jene is immediately survived by Max, husband of 72 years; sons and daughters-in-law Jim and Theresa and Joe and Sally; grandchildren Kevin (Kaitlyn), Emily, Jack (Kayla) and Lara, and great grandchild Alex.

She was preceded in death by her sisters Mary Willis, Bernice Sampson, and Lucille Slade.

She was a devoted and loving wife, mother, grandmother, and great grandmother. She cared greatly for her extended family of sisters, nieces and nephews, cousins, and in-laws. She was an avid reader and always enjoyed a good story, truthful or otherwise.

Services will be held on Thursday July 20th at Bevis Funeral Home on John Knox Road in Tallahassee, Florida – visitation at 11:00am EDT with a service at noon. She will be interred at Tallahassee Memory Gardens immediately following.

Dayne Parker of Bevis Funeral Home (850-385-2193 or www.bevisfh.com) is assisting the family with their arrangements.

“ I would always wait on the front steps for Aunt Jene to come home from high school when she lived with us in Bedford. Spending time with her over the years was always special to me.
