

Jerome Denton Scudder

November 21, 1947 - May 15, 2019

Jerome Denton Scudder accepted a new position in Heaven on May 15, 2019. He left his loving wife Mayellen, his children Lee, Febra, LeAnn, Teresa, Cathern, his brother Oscar , his 14 grandchildren and 5 greatgrandchildren. Jerome accomplished his goals of becoming a cop, soldier, husband, and father. He served his country during war times and came home a Vietnam Vet. He loved his family endlessly and shared his kind soul with everyone. Jerome traveled the world and found home was the best place to be. He drove across the United States of America with family twice. He shared his love for his homeland and country with his family. Together they saw the Grand Canyon, Redwood Forest, the Petrified Forest, Yellowstone Park, and many states in hopes his family understood his love for them was grander than anything they would ever know.

His words of wisdom were to “Love them for who they are and not who you want them to be.”
