“ Just finding out today after all these years of trying to locate him to say “Aay wat up dirk...to only find out that my good friend, co-worker and a teacher to me in many ways is gone. I’m saddened and heart broken to find out today this way. Jerrod was a good family man who cared about people and loved to have fun. I remember him for loving to watch movies and eating out a lot at restaurants. Jerrod I don’t know what happened but know that I miss you my brother and I’ll see you when my number plays dirk....
