

Jesse Joseph Lo Re

October 29, 1965 - July 22, 2025

Jesse Lo Re was deeply loved and will be profoundly missed by many. He is pre-deceased by his father, Pat Lo Re and survived by his devoted mother, Nikki Lo Re; his beloved daughters, Ally Lo Re and Arielle Lo Re; his sister, Laurie Lo Re-Gussak, and brother-in-law, Dave Gussak; his cherished nephew, Joseph Gussak, and niece, Samantha Gussak; his former wife and close friend, Maritza LoRe; his dear Aunt Borina Montemale; as well as many loving cousins and lifelong friends.

Jesse had a deep connection to the ocean and found joy in all it offered—swimming, surfing, SCUBA diving, and simply spending time at the beach with friends. His passion for nature extended to his professional life, where he dedicated himself to environmental causes. As the founder of several businesses, most recently Ecoalition, Jesse worked tirelessly to promote sustainability and protect the planet.

He was admired for his sharp business mind and was a respected figure in the digital marketing world, known for his entrepreneurial spirit and innovation.

Above all, Jesse's greatest joy came from being a father. The time he spent with Ally and Arielle brought him his deepest fulfillment and happiness.

“ Jesse was a lifelong friend who was my first friend in Miami when I moved there almost 30 years ago. We have had many memories together and were there for both our weddings and beyond. Jesse and I even worked on Vayan together 20 years ago. We are very saddened by his passing. Ericka and I send our deepest condolences to his family.

“ I haven't seen Jesse in a long time. We went to St. Cecilia's together when we were little, but I've loved keeping up with his adventures, travel, surfing, and his beautiful family. I am so sorry to hear of his passing. My condolences and prayers to his family.
