“ Every time I saw you, you had a smile on your face and always bragged on how cute Reis is. No matter what you had going on, you always worried about what was going on with me. You are truly missed, by so many. It's so hard to believe this is has happened. Your mom, dad, Chris and Baily are in my prayers. <3

“ To my good friend Jessica. I can not put into words the presence you brought when you were around others. It was much more than happiness, it was like adding in the sunshine and fresh air from a spring meadow as well. Your smile and friendship will always be remembered, may you rest in Peace.

“ I met Jessica at CHP when we both worked there. We have kept in touch since we both left. Jessica came to my hospital room and visited a couple of times even though I was at TMH! May God grant you comfort in these next days and months. Bailey will shine just as her mom did.

“ I still remember the time we went to prom together. she was wearing a pink dress .she was so beautiful in it. I wondered why she picked me to go with when she could have chosen alot better looking guys then me. but it was not all about the looks to her. she only cared about what was on the inside instead of looks. that want im gonna miss the most

“ So full of life. A young woman, beautiful inside and out. Didn't have a care in the world. Baily was her world. My heart aches for the family and friends. Anyone who had contact with Jessica, knew she was the light of the room. She knew what to say, when to say it, and how to say it. Her memory will forever live in each of us!
