

Jewell Rains Clark

February 12, 1922 - August 28, 2021

Jewell David Rains Clark, 99, went to be with her Lord and Savior on August 28, 2021. She was born in Dothan, Alabama on February 12, 1922, the third of eight children born to John and Annie Mae David. She was a graduate of Florida State College for Women, now Florida State University, and taught elementary school before marrying Tom Rains in 1948. Together they owned Rains Sewing Center in Tallahassee, FL until Tom's death in 1973. Through a mutual friend she later reconnected with RJ Clark, her old high school sweetheart. They married in 1976 and enjoyed retirement in Fort Walton and Panama City, FL for the next 28 years. A devoted Christian from age 35, she was active in Tallahassee Heights Methodist Church while living in Tallahassee and Hiland Park Baptist Church after moving to Panama City. She is survived by two sons, Paul Rains (Bobbi) of Orlando, FL and Randy Rains (Melva) of Loganville, GA; two stepsons, Tom Rains, Jr (Linda) of Tallahassee, FL and Earl Clark (Beth) of Niceville, FL; four stepdaughters, Martha Bayer (Peter) of Mary Esther, FL, Mimie Mikolay (Daniel) of Pensacola, FL, Donna Sue Rains of Port Charlotte, FL and Betty June Fletcher (Jim) of Marion, IN; three brothers, Russ David (Diane) of Hawkinsville, GA, Ed David of Panama City, FL, and Robert David (Barbara) of Spring Hill, FL; 21 grandchildren, 37 great grandchildren.

“ I knew Tom and Jewel many years ago when they were members at Tallahassee Heights United Methodist Church where I served on many church committees with Jewel and Tom. I always enjoyed being with them in meetings and at other church functions. They were a wonderful Christian Family. My condolences go out to Jewel's family. Charlie Middleton

I spent a lot of time at Rains' Sewing Center as a teen who loved creating projects. I made almost all of my own clothing and Miss Jewell helped me with the special touches that made my projects stand out. Also, Paul Rains and I were in the class of 1967 at Leon High School. Rest In Peace, Miss Jewell, you lived a life worthy of your Savior. Fondly, Carol Davis Winchester
