

Joan Elizabeth Douglas Strickland

June 20, 1952 - February 11, 2020

Joan Elizabeth Douglas Strickland, age 67, passed away on February 11, 2020 in Tallahassee, Florida. She was born in Tallahassee, Florida to Virginia and Joe Douglas, in 1952 and lived her entire life in Tallahassee. Joan or “Diddy” (as she was nicknamed by her brother who was almost 2 years old) and her kids loved the beach and fishing. They spent as much time as they could down at Saint Teresa with her sister, Jo, and her family.

Joan graduated from Leon High School. She was a gifted professional photographer and an award-winning member of the Florida Professional Photographers organization. She worked independently at first and then for the Florida Department of Agriculture.

Joan was a devoted mother to her sons, Casey and Tucker (Lauren) Strickland, and a wonderful grandmother to Tucker’s children, Harper and Scarlett Strickland. She leaves behind her siblings; sister Jo Gluesenkamp, sister Janet (Larry) Grubbs, and brother John (Kathy) Douglas, as well as many nephews, nieces, and cousins who adored her.

A private family graveside service was held on March 12, 2020 at Roselawn Cemetery of Tallahassee.

Breanna Green of Bevis Funeral Home is assisting the family with their arrangements. (850-385-2193 or www.bevisfh.com)
