

JoAnn Todd Bierbaum

February 24, 1932 - April 21, 2026

Mrs. JoAnn Bierbaum, age 94, passed away on April 21, 2026, in Tallahassee, Florida. She was born on February 24, 1932, in Atlanta, Georgia, the daughter of James Wesley and Bonnie Beddingfield Todd.

Mrs. Bierbaum was a resident of DeFuniak Springs until 2022. She was a member of the First Baptist Church of DeFuniak Springs and the Adult IV Sunday School Class. She also served on the library committee and the hospitality committee at the church.

JoAnn, or “Josie,” as Bill, her husband of 66 years, called her, moved with Bill to this area in 1960 from Ocala, Florida. They bought McLean’s Florist in 1966 and operated it for 26 years. Josie loved working in floral design and loved the people she served. After the sale of the florist business, she was co-owner of Infinity, a gift shop at The Market at Sandestin, for 11 years. Upon retiring she and Bill enjoyed traveling to destinations they had talked about through the years. She also enjoyed patio gardening and working in her yard. One of her favorite hobbies was stitching with friends once a week. Family and friends were an important part of her life. Her son, Bill Jr., daughter-in-law, Joyce Carbonell, and grandchildren: Todd (Amanda) Bierbaum, Connie Jo and Joelle Carbonell-Bierbaum were a great joy to her.

Josie was preceded in death by her husband; parents; brother, Larry Todd; and niece, Jamie Cox. She is survived by her son, Bill Bierbaum Jr. (Joyce), of Tallahassee, Florida; sister-in-law, Bobbie Todd, of Tallahassee, Florida; nephew, David (Trish) Todd, of Tallahassee, Florida; and grandchildren: Todd (Amanda) Bierbaum, of DeFuniak Springs, Florida, and Connie Jo and Joelle Carbonell-Bierbaum, of Tallahassee, Florida.
