“ John and I used to work together at Kids Pointe. Once I got to know him I thought he was hilarious. And now I understand something about John. He always used to come back from lunch and he always seemed to drop something on his shirt. Now that I am in my mid to late 60s I rarely eat a meal without dropping something on my shirt. He was funny and sweet and he loved his Di. I was afraid he might die of a broken heart right after she left us. Stacy from the store went with me to her memorial service. I am sorry that I did not find out in time to attend John's memorial service here in Tallahassee. I was in the middle of grieving my mother's passing 2 years ago. It's still a strong today as it was then. I know you will miss him because he was a joy to be around and he was my friend. I'm very sorry that he is no longer with us on this Earth and he is with his Diana.

With much love, Sheila Tucker Peace
