“ John, John, John... I am still trying to wake up from this dream. It's been over 3 weeks now and I still hear your voice and see your concerned voice. I know you love me deeply as I do you. Not a day goes by that I don't cry just thinking about you and remembering our special times together.. We still had so many plans together. Give me the strength to keep going and I love you so so much.

“ Sherri, I am at a loss for words. John was such a true friend. Every time I saw him it was like we picked up where we left off. From day one he always told me how you were the best thing that ever happened to him. (All the way back to the seminole roofing days!) He always had my back up against all those other guys I had to deal with and I will be forever grateful to him for that. I hope you hold on to all your memories and help you find comfort in the days ahead. Hugs and prayers to you and all the family and friends John touched while here on this Earth. Go rest high my friend...I will drink a beer for you tonight!

“ RIP bro-inlaw I've always had madd respect for the man that loved and took such good care of my sister the way you did, you had the heart the size of Texas, always willing to help any and everyone you could, it didn't matter to you what it took to help you just jump on the chance to help. You will be greatly missed by me and all the lives you touched in the time God gave you to grace this world in that John MCcann way of yours. Now go fulfill the rest of God's plan for you on the streets of gold spend time with the family and friends that went before you, I know you'll be watching over your wife from heaven from time to time and I pray that you'll try and send her the comfort she is going to need to know you are ok and happy now as well as you always where by her side. Miss you already ole boy but untill we meet again I'll be looking for the signs that we are on your mind as well. Love you!
