“Mr. Al and my granddaddy Wallace Hancock worked many years in K-9 together. I was blessed to meet Mr. Al at Foshalee Plantation when I was around 3-4 years old. I went with my granddaddy to train dogs. Over the years as I grew up I was blessed to train many dogs with Mr. Al and my granddaddy. I went to Panama City with them many times to certify dogs. I always enjoyed listening to them tell stories of when they were in K-9 with the Sheriffs Department. Mr. Al was the type of man who if he told you something you could take it to the bank. Those type are few and far now a days. Mr. Al use to tell me if it wasn't for him and John Wayne we would of lost WW2. I will miss him. Prayers for the families in the coming days.
