

John Julian Teague, Jr.

May 29, 1947 - March 10, 2025

John Julian Teague, Jr. (Johnny), went home to be with his Lord and Savior on March 10, 2025, after an extended illness. Johnny is the son of Buddy and Frances Teague. He was a lifelong resident of Tallahassee and a proud graduate of Leon High School and Florida State University.

While at Leon High School, he and several friends formed the Mystics, a popular high school band, and he was involved in many activities. Johnny especially enjoyed boating, spending time at Alligator Point fishing and water skiing.

He served for 5 years in the Army National Guard. Johnny retired from the Florida Department of Forestry after experiencing a debilitating stroke in 2007. Though the stroke took away his ability to write and speak, he lived a full life and could be seen mowing his grass or driving his favorite blue truck-a Ford F-150. He enjoyed visits from many of his high school friends and his family over the years.

Johnny is survived by his sister Linda Teague, brother Everett Teague (Deborah); son John Teague (Amy); daughter Jessica Shultz and three grandchildren who live in Nashville.

A Celebration of Life service will be held at 4:00 p.m. Friday, March 28, 2025,
