“ Dear Mrs Anne Charlotte

As former director of Korean trade promotion office in Atlanta, I'm writing to you from Korea with deep sorrow to have found the sad news.

My family all have been missing a lot Mr. Yoon Jong-kyu since we left Atlanta in 2001 but direct contact with him had not been realized as I lost his telephone number as well as his email address. because of my laziness,

Yesterday, I tried to type his name on Google looking forward to any small sign to be able to reach him but I found there completely unexpected news of him passed away almost two years ago .

Two photos of ours as well as that of your kissing on his dead forehead shown among the commemorative photos make us shed tears of sorrow.

I would like you to accept our condolences with deep grief even belated.

Also I would like to thank you for all you have done for us during our visit

Tallahassee in 2000 and God bless you
