“ So it is June 5th 2022, I went to church today forgetting about the anniversary of Joe's Death, I was reminded and surprised. Joe when he was younger was an excellent French horn player and what showed up at todays service at church and never shows up was a French horn player playing excellently. God is amazing. Your brother Kris.

“ Our hearts are heavy and our minds are filled with grief. You will always be remembered because of your kindness and friendship we shared together. Truly earth has no sorrow that heaven can not heal. God Bless Your Family.
