

Joy Jackson Lamb

April 7, 1958 - October 10, 2025

Joy Jackson Lamb was born on April 7, 1958 and passed away peacefully at the age of 67 after a long battle with cancer. She was surrounded by her husband, Randy, brother Dan "Rusty" Jackson, cousin Beverly Draper Roseman and dear friend Sherrie McGill, at Big Bend Hospice House on October 10, 2025.

Joy was the wife and best friend of Randall O. Lamb for 38 years and a resident of Tallahassee, FL and formerly of Harbourside Condominiums in South Pasadena, FL. She was a loving daughter to James Daniel Jackson and Willa Jackson of Tampa, FL. Anyone who knew or met Joy knew that she lived up to her name because she was a true JOY to be around.

She enjoyed traveling both in the US and overseas. She was a huge reader which you could see by her personal library at her home. Joy attended the University of Southern Mississippi and the University of South Florida where she finished with a masters in computer science. She loved going to school and continuing her education. Her working career started with an internship with Shell Oil, Electric Maintenance and Construction, G-Ted's and J P Morgan Chase where she finished her career managing a team of analysts, developers and programmers.

Joy loved the gathering of friends and family, laughter and a glass of wine or two. Joy will be remembered by the ones that knew her as a beautiful, intelligent, kind, interesting woman with a strong will to live life to the fullest.

In lieu of flowers, please make a donation in Joy's name to the Big Bend Hospice Foundation, Inc. of Tallahassee at bigbendhospice.org. A celebration of her life will be held at a later date with family and close friends.

Breanna Green of Bevis Funeral Home (850-385-2193 or www.bevisfh.com) is assisting the family with their arrangements.

“ My heart is so heavy to hear of Joy’s passing. I will always remember the joyful spirit she brought to our team so many years ago at Chase Manhattan — the laughter we shared, the way we all pulled together, and her excitement when she spoke about her condo in Tierra Verde and days on the Donzi with her husband. Those were such good times, and she made them even brighter.

Wishing peace and comfort to her loved ones. May her beautiful energy and the joy she brought to others live on in all of us who were lucky to know her.

“ I was truly fortunate to have worked with Joy at JPMorgan Chase. She was one of the first members of the WebStats team and helped build its foundation with her kindness, compassion, and wisdom. I’ll always be grateful for her support and encouragement — she was the one who helped me join the team.

Joy loved her family and shared that same warmth and spirit with everyone around her. It was especially meaningful that we both retired from Chase at the same time, closing a chapter we had shared for so many years.

Well said, George. We went through so much together. I was honored to work with Joy, you, and the whole team.

“ Joy and several of my colleagues were founding team members of Webstats at Chase Bank. She was dependable and was always pleasant to work with. She was also generous; she once let my family stay at her townhouse in Panama City. RIP. Victor Ng

“ Joy and I initially became colleagues and dear friends 30 years ago at JPMorgan Chase as MIS Analysts. Our career paths took us in different directions but we managed to keep in touch while I was busy raising a son until I was laid off from the Chase/BankOne merger and Joy re-hired me back in 2010. As expected, she was a compassionate manager for our team of business analysts until Chase disbanded the entire unit a few years later and our careers parted ways again. On occasion, Joy and I would give gifts ‘just because’ making our friendship that much more special. Her kindness, her humor, her intellect, her love for Randy, her parents, her family, her friends, her books and her cat, Honey Boy, were always ever present in her life. Joy, you were one-of-a-kind and will leave an empty place in our hearts forever!

“Joy was the first person to buy my poetry book entitled "She Rose" when it debuted in 2006. When others were asking for a discount or a free copy she was asking about my writing process and how she could help me stay inspired and encouraged. I'll never forget that. She was a supportive friend and resilient spirit. I am grateful our paths crossed. Joy Lamb rose. She Rose.

“A couple of years ago, after dining out and waiting for Randy to bring the car around, I told Joy, that it was not her time. Undoubtedly, she took me seriously and fought like the dickens to stay with her loving husband. She did not go quietly into the abyss, but she took a piece of all of us with her. She was a very special person and will be surely missed. Rest In Peace my friend.

“ I had the pleasure of working with Joy at JPMorgan Chase. In fact, she interviewed and mentored me in my first post-college corporate job. She introduced me to friends, and helped my wife and I settle into a wonderful life in Florida. For over 17 years (!), a core group of us supported each other through all the organizational ups and downs. Joy's generosity, humor, and joyful spirit were matched only by her dedication, intelligence, and commitment to doing things right. I'm so grateful I had the opportunity to know her. To Randy and her close friends and family, I send my deepest condolences.

“ A memory I will never forget. Randy, Joy, Ralph Kiputh, and I went for awesome boat ride in Randy's Donzi. Randy always spoke of Joy whenever he'd come by my office like they were always living their teenage years. I was lucky to meet her that day and enjoy the beautiful weather out on their boat. Her spirit matched her name.
