

Joy Lorraine Vo

April 20, 1967 - January 27, 2024

Joy Lorraine Vo of Tallahassee Florida, left this life behind on Saturday, January 27th, 2024 at the age of 56 , after a long and courageous battle with Acute Myeloid Leukemia. She died peacefully surrounded by her beloved husband of 22 years, her parents and close friends. Despite her circumstances she always had a smile to share and expressed God's goodness and grace, and love with those around her.

Joy is survived by her husband Nhon T Vo, of Tallahassee Florida, parents Bill and Hope Osborne and brother Bill Osborne IV, all of Paducah Kentucky.

Joy was very creative, enjoying the fine Arts, and photography, winning local competitions. She was a quilter, and a part of Tallahassee Quilt Guild. She loved entertaining, especially tea parties. She was a natural caregiver. Her faith was strong and she was at peace.

A Memorial service is to be held in Paducah Kentucky for family and close friends. A joyful celebration of life is to be held in Tallahassee Florida at a later time.

Susie Mozolic of Bevis Funeral Home is assisting the Vo family with their arrangements. (www.bevisfh.com or 850-385-2193)

“ Brought together by our mutual love of books and quilting, I met and loved Joy for a very short 7 years. She brought so much joy to my life--I wish it had been 70 years instead of 7. Rest in heavenly peace, dear friend.

More than quilts and books, I will always think about you when someone talks of thread! Lol! Be sure to teach all the angels of the different kinds and what use it has. You are missed my friend. Peggy

Of yesterday's memories
and hopes for tomorrow,
Of pathways we choose and detours we face
With patience and humor,
courage and grace,
Of joys that we've shared
and of people we've met

“ My best friend is at peace. How can I describe my best friend Joy ? Smart , funny , kind , and most of all a devout Christian. Her light shone on whoever she encountered in her life. I first met her at a going away party for my niece in 1991. We became instant friends. She was a loving and supportive friend and we never lost our friendship despite distance, time or her illness. She loved me unconditionally and I loved her the same way. She was the very best definition of a Christian. I'm so happy to know she is nearer to our Lord Jesus than ever . I am happy she has shed her earthly life and embraced her Eternal life and all her pain is gone . I hope I see you soon, my beautiful friend. ❤️🙏

“ We knew Joy's parents when she was born and watched her grow during the early years. She was aptly named, always sowing that beautiful smile and sweet spirit. The way she handled her long illness and treatment was inspiring to everyone who knew her. My prayer is for God's peace and comfort to surround this family who will miss her so much each day. Joy, you were so loved and showed such bravery.

“ Joy was such a good person: kind, always finding happiness in the little things in life and very caring. She was a total fighter when it came to dealing with her cancer. She fought with determination and all her might. In the end, god had other plans for her. Heaven got an angel on Jan 27th. We are still in shock that she is gone, gone too soon. Rest in peace Joyster!

May Joy rest in peace after fighting the killer for so long! I did not know Joy, but her father would always talk about her and expressed her love for Christ. May Bill, Hope and Bill IV rest in the comfort of God's love and grace. Joy, may you rest in peace on your grandmother's quilt that she made for you.

Love,
Your cousin, Barbara Sinclair

“ I am a friend of Nhon Vo and only met Joy Vo briefly at the Thanksgiving celebration at their home. Joy was very welcoming and good conversationalist. I am sorry I had such a brief time knowing her before her passing but wish her and her family the best in this difficult time.

“ Joy was my sister from a different mother, our becoming neighbors almost 19 years ago was a God thing. Joy was a faithful servant of Christ, always willing to help in any way possible. Together we shared many holidays, birthdays, and all sorts of celebrations through the years. Thanks be to God for the ‘joy’ she shared. Joy is at peace now, and we will meet again, but our hearts are breaking right now for the loss of her life on earth.
