

Kae Diane Ingram

December 2, 1942 - January 8, 2020

Kae Diane Ingram born December 2, 1942 in Punxsutawney, PA, peacefully ascended to heaven on January 8, 2020 at Tallahassee Memorial Hospital at the age of 77. Kae was preceded in death by her parents, Margaret Olexick and Floyd Basile and three husbands, James S. Trunzo, Charles N. Ingram and James J. O'Brien. She is survived by her two daughters, Jessica T. Johnston (Kirby) and Monica T. Olsen (Thomas), four grandchildren Michael Chase DiMartino, Christina Kae DiMartino, Maria Kae Olsen and Michael Thomas Olsen, one great granddaughter Skyler Jane DiMartino and two sisters, Karen Smouse (Robert) and Nancy Sauls. Kae was most affectionately know as "Granny". The list of loved ones that knew her as Granny was endless.

Kae moved to Tallahassee, FL in 1972 and fell in love with the city. It was here that her love of gardening and flowers grew. She was a member of Springtime Tallahassee 20th Century Krewe, belonged to a bridge club, the Red Hat Club and of course the Garden Club. Her heart belonged most to the beloved Super Women.

Kae entered the workforce well before there was a women's movement. She simply set her sight on something she wanted to do and did it. She began her career working at Ann's Preschool while completing her master's degree. She entered the Leon County School system as a teacher working her way up the ladder to Assistant Principal, Principal and finally ending her career as the Assistant Superintendent of Secondary Schools.

A service to celebrate her life will be held at Good Shepherd Parish on January 13, 2020 at 11:00; reception to follow immediately. As Kae had a deep fondness for gardening, she has requested that the attire be floral print or festive colors. Flowers sent to the church will be donated to various institutions to bring joy to others. Susie Mozolic of Bevis Funeral Home is assisting the family with their arrangements. “ Kae was a generous and spirited person with so much love to give her friends and family. My husband, Vince, and I stayed with her for several days during the time that her husband, Jim O'Brien (Vince's brother), was in the intensive recovery center prior to his death. We had hoped to give her some relief from her days-long visits to sit at Jim's bedside. She could not stop herself from going with us each day.

Kae was a very loving wife and we are so glad that she and Jim found happiness together. Each evening during our visit we talked with her for hours and got to know her so much better. I hope Kae's family and friends will find comfort and shared love with one another during this sad time.

*Love to you,
Tina O'Brien*
