“ She was a big part of me becoming the man I am today. She taught me many life lessons when I was younger. She was stern but had a heart full of love more than anything! She is dancing with the angels!!!!

Karen was so full of life ,she had a heart of gold and always thought of others. She loved her sewing and store she would sell her crafts. Her family was her world and if you were a friend you were family . She was my sister . My heart breaks for her family . Love you all .
