“ I am so sorry for your loss. As a mother situations like these always saddens me, so I am sure you are experiencing a dark time now. We often ask why when things like these happen and rightly so as we will never get used to death. Please take comfort that God does not desire this either and pretty soon you will have the hope of reuniting with your precious little one again as we are promised a resurrection ACTS 24:15. Please find some comfort in that, my prayers are with you.

“ My deepest sympathy to the family. I know there are no words to ease the pain of losing someone so loved and precious. A child so innocent is never easy for any of us to cope with, but we have the assurance of our Heavenly Father that he will comfort us in all our trials. (2 Corinthians 1:3,4) Death was never a part of the creators purpose for mankind, so he furnished a guarantee by means of his son Jesus that we will see our loved ones again in the resurrection. (John 5:28,29) As a parent my heart goes out to you. I pray that you can find comfort in the words of Revelation 21:4 which says "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things will have passed away.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. There are heartwarming and encouraging promises from the Bible that can bring much comfort and hope and strength to your family at this most difficult time. Perhaps reflecting on these scriptures will give you what's needed to assure your family of God's love: Job 14:14,15; Psalms 55:22; Psalms 94:19; Isaiah 25:8, Acts 24:15; Revelation 21:4.

“ Amanda, Ryker, Kalil and Mason, your precious Kate captured my heart from the very beginning. I prayed countless days for her recovery and was devastated to see the post that she was gone from this earth. My heart is forever changed by a precious life that fought so courageously. The strength and grace your family has shown throughout this journey has been truly inspiring. I pray for His peace and strength to surround you in the days, weeks and months to come. Thank You for being so transparent and sharing her life with us, total strangers that have come to love her and your family as our own. I believe this is what The Lord would have us understand in "love on another" , for I do. Be Still for He will comfort you.

“ Great-grandma Norma Jeane Cherrington is in Salt Lake City, Utah but has followed every minute of Kate's life as her sweet Mother, Amanda, kept me posted. She was sent to Earth to accomplish what she had to do for Eternal progression. After much pain and suffering, as our Savior, she was released. She is family. We will see her again. Bless those who mourn her that they will have this faith to sustain them.

“Kate gave me strength from afar watching her journey. Every day that her parents were present with her, every day that she fought for life, the butterflies that provided reminders of hope and grace and the smiles that came hours before she would pass all changed me. And my family. Kate was a brilliant pure spark of God's light and her light will keep burning in every single human being affected by her spirit. We will not be shaken but rather will rely on the Lord. May He be the Prince of Peace in the hearts of the Conway family. I pray Jesus comforts you all continuously.
