“ A woman that was fierce about her family and friends ... a hard working woman that loved life and lived it to the fullest. A friend that was always there when you needed her and one that you could always count on. Whether it be a long talk, a short visit or a chit chat... Kathy always laughed. As for her family ... she was the backbone of raising her son and taking care of others. If you knew Kathy then you were special... knowing her from middle school all the way to adulthood I am so happy to have all the memories and talks we had. I you are having a ball up there ... keeping the party going just waiting for the rest of us ... you will be missed by many.
