

Kay Roberts Towle

September 25, 1936 - August 21, 2011

Kay Roberts Towle, 74, of Tallahassee, passed away Sunday, August 21, 2011 following a lengthy illness.

The family will receive friends from 7:00 PM until 9:00 PM, Friday, August 26, 2011 at Bevis Funeral Home in Tallahassee (850/385-2193).

Mrs. Towle was a native of Knoxville, Tennessee and moved to Tallahassee from that city in 1969. She received her bachelor's degree in nursing from the University of Tennessee and later was a registered nurse on the staff at UT Medical Center, as well as Tallahassee Memorial Hospital and the Southeastern Community Blood Center in Tallahassee. She also taught surgical nursing for several years. In 1978 she opened "The Bookshelf" bookstore, and operated it until illness required her to sell the business in 1993.

Survivors include her husband Cecil R. Towle of Tallahassee; two sons, Michael Towle (Cari) and Donald Towle, both of Tallahassee; her mother, Virginia Roberts of Tallahassee; and her sister Brenda Johnson of Tallahassee. Also surviving are her three grandchildren, Madison, Codi and Jessica Towle.

Mrs. Towle was preceded in death by her father, Benjamin Franklin Roberts
