

Keith Eugene Shaw

March 29, 1930 - September 12, 2024

“Keith Eugene Shaw went to be with the Lord on September 12, 2024. Born on March 29, 1930, on the farm to Clyde Lytle Shaw and Vada Lucille (Armstrong) Shaw in Oberlin, KS. Keith was the oldest of 4 children raised to value hard work, family and the Church. After graduating from high school, Keith tried his hand at odd jobs before joining the Navy. While in the Navy he found his talent and love for electronics and computers. When stationed in San Diego, CA, he met and married Evie Lee Hughes on October 24, 1953. Upon leaving the Navy and after the birth of their first daughter Susan, he began his 33-year career with IBM. Keith worked out of Tallahassee then Panama City where they welcomed their second daughter, Sharon. After moving back to Tallahassee, Keith suffered the loss of Evie Lee. Through his faith, he was able to find love again at church with Evelyn Cassels. Keith and Evelyn were married May 15, 1971. Keith also gained 2 daughters Sandy and Bobbye that he loved as his own. After early retirement Keith and Evelyn were able to travel and enjoy over 40 years living on Lake Talquin with lots of fishing, watching Seminole football and many family get-togethers. Keith is preceded in death by his parents, sister Nila, brother Neil, first wife Evie Lee, a daughter Susan and second wife Evelyn. Keith is survived by his brother Don (Lorna), daughters Sharon (Emmett), Sandy (Larry), Bobbye (Mike) along with 7 grandchildren, 4 great grandchildren and 1 great, great grandson. The family will receive friends, Wednesday, September 25, 2024 from 10:00 - 11:00 AM, at Seminole Baptist Church, the memorial service will follow at 11:00 AM. A private family committal service will be held at Tallahassee National Cemetery. In lieu of flowers memorial contributions may be made to Big Bend Hospice or your favorite charity. Todd Wahlquist is assisting the Shaw family with their arrangements (850-385-2193, www.bevisfh.com).
