“ Mama and her pink Jeep picking up Jana at Montessori Developmental. School, was the envy of all the lil girls. Jana was the princess to ride in it!
And you took such good care of Jana in her wheelchair, years later, with her pet white rat running around!

Amen, Laurie, Amen

“ Laurie had the biggest heart of anyone I've ever had the privilege of knowing. I already feel such an empty void knowing I wont hear her voice again. She loved her daughter Jana and grandson Kit with all her heart. That was always a topic when we talked. She never had a bad word to say about anyone. If you were down, she always found a way to make you feel better. She had some really tough years and was a trooper through it all. Her perseverance, strength, family and especially her faith kept her going. I'm going to miss you Laurie Bell, fly high my friend, until we meet again.

Love,
Darla
