

Lavonia Gray Reeves

May 13, 1940 - November 23, 2023

Lavonia Gray Reeves, 83, died peacefully at her home surrounded by family November 23, 2023. She was born May 13, 1940, in Tallahassee to Thomas and Annie Gray.

She is survived by her son Eric Reeves, wife Cynthia; grandson Christopher Reeves, wife Emily; two great-grandchildren, Shawn and Alexia; Nana to Kayla Taylor McClellan; her sisters Shelvie Mears, Kathy Taylor (Ricky), brother Clarence Gray (Brenda); and a host of nieces and nephews. She was predeceased by her husband of 62 years Asa Reeves in 2022, her parents, sister Arlene Traylor, and brother Roger Gray.

Lavonia was a devoted wife, mother, sister, grandmother, great-grandmother, and a friend to all that knew her. She was a homemaker and spent her life taking care of her family. She was an amazing cake baker/decorator of hundreds of birthday and wedding cakes. Her life passion was to sing gospel music with her sister Kathy Taylor, son, and grandson with The Reeves Trio and touched many lives with her talent. Lavonia was a faithful member of Calvary Tabernacle and selflessly served as the church secretary for many years. She will truly be missed by all that knew her.

The family will receive friends, Tuesday, November 28, from 5:00 PM until 7:00 PM, at Bevis Funeral Home. Funeral service will be held, Wednesday, November 29, at 2:30 PM, at Bevis Funeral home, interment will follow at New Hope Cemetery. Todd Wahlquist is assisting the Reeves family with their arrangements (850-385-2193, www.bevisfh.com).

“ Lavonia was such a sweet women. She made cakes for our family for many years and there was nothing like her cake. She and Asa were loving and caring people. She will be missed by her family, but she is with Asa and our lord.

“ Asa Reeves and my dad O'Neal White were firemen together and we have a lot of memories of this amazing couple. She had a beautiful singing voice and her love for her Lord was contagious. Our entire family extend our deepest condolences. I can only imagine the beautiful music the 3 of them are making in Heaven 🎵❤️
