

Leola "Lea" Mae McDonald

January 24, 1950 - December 2, 2024

Leola "Lea" Mae McDonald, 74, of Tallahassee, Florida, passed away peacefully on December 2, 2024 surrounded by her loving family. She was born on January 24, 1950, to the late Raully Scott McDonald and Connie Lou French McDonald. Lea was a devoted daughter, sister, aunt and friend, known for her sweet, kind, and loving nature, and her steadfast faith in the Lord.

Lea was preceded in death by her parents and her younger brother, Kevin. She is survived by her beloved sister, Camilla Augustine, her three nieces, Rhonda Hewitt (husband Chet Hewitt), Erin Pomeroy (husband Jack Pomeroy), and Lauren McDonald, and her cherished great nephews, Driss Belhassan, John and Jackson Pomeroy, and Atlas Elias. Lea's family was the center of her life, and she adored spending time with them, offering support, encouragement, and endless love.

A sweet and loving woman, Lea was deeply cherished by all who knew her. A woman of deep faith, Lea's life was a testament to her love for God and others. Her kind heart, nurturing spirit, and devotion to her family left an indelible mark on those fortunate to be in her life. She will be remembered for her warmth, grace, and the joy she brought to her loved ones.

Lea will be dearly missed by all who had the privilege of knowing her. Her memory will live on in the hearts of her family, friends, and all whose lives she enriched. A memorial service will be held on Saturday, December 14, 2024 at 4:00pm at St. Andrew's Anglican Catholic Church located at 401 Timberlane Road in Tallahassee, Florida.

Dayne Parker of Bevis Funeral Home (850-385-2193 or www.bevisfh.com) is assisting the McDonald family with their arrangements.
