“ It has been a pleasure to care for Miss Lilla Mary and I thank the family for allowing me the opportunity to do so. I will forever remember her and all the treasured memories I have of our time together. She was truly an inspiration in so many ways to me and I highly admire her relationship with Jesus and being a doer of the Lords deeds. I know without a doubt that she is in heaven and look forward to catching up with her again. R.I.P my dear friend, I love you.
