“ Linda was a natural leader. We had to wash the dishes together and it was a fight over who would wash the dishes. So when I won and got to wash them and she had to dry. She would put the pan back in my side and say you missed a spot. I would get so mad, I would give up and let her wash them and I would dry them. Then we would pop each other with the wet rags. Needless to say we broke a few dishes. She was a great cook and house keeper. I always admired her, and her love for Jesus.
