“ I am Ann lindas first grand daughter. I remember allot with her. The time I was in job corps and was pregnant with my daughter I told her first. All the countless pots of coffee n late nights of talking n crying some times. She stood with me threw both of my children and brought them too her home Wich was also her mom and fathers place. I'll miss you sweet Lady you could be mean as a snake but you had the biggest heart there will never be another ever like you. Fly high angel. Love kiara and ky'mani your great grand and Ann Marie your first granddaughter 😔

Linda you took me into your home as if I was a member of your immediate family. Only a bleed Angel will do that and be blessed for it.

Hey grandma it's al kay and the kids we love u and going to miss u I'm very glad that u decided to come see us on Thanksgiving and spent time with the great grandkids. You being able to see the kids made my day or should I say the week it bugged me for 3 years when bb was born for u to see her than came Alakay and uzziah and zenobia and zena and I stressed all the way up till Thanksgiving. R.I.P grandma we love u dearly until we meet again. Oh yea tell all the family in heaven I love them too and miss them
