

Lisa Lynn Bowen

November 8, 1963 - January 11, 2022

Lisa Lynn Bowen (Leftridge), born November 8, 1963, in Denver, Colorado to William Kyle Leftridge and Margaret June Daniels. Lisa spent time in Maryland and Georgia but eventually put down roots in St. Marks, Florida. She would tell stories about her childhood years and how she would ride the roads of Georgia in a beefed-up muscle car going nowhere fast or playing in the snow in Maryland.

Most know her from her waitressing career in Wakulla County for over thirty years. If you have ever visited Two Rivers Restaurant, Forgotten Coast Seafood Shack, Wakulla Springs, or The Sweet Magnolia, there is a good chance you had the pleasure of meeting Lisa. She was always the hardest worker in the room. She took a lot of pride in her work and always remembered her customers name, their favorite foods, and drinks. Lisa had a deep love for the beach, riding with the windows down and the music turned way up. She was also a Harley-Davidson enthusiast. Her motto was to always keep a seashell in your pocket, and her favorite colors were orange and black.

The loves of her life were her daughter, Ashley Bowen, and her four grandchildren, Aaliyah Cole, Robert Soule, Jr., Joshua Bowen, and Colten Yeomans. She was the Nana of all Nana's. All children who walked through her doors found comfort because of her caring ways. She had a great way of listening to others without judgement, comforting them, and even letting them know how to get it together in the most loving way.

Lisa Bowen was one of a kind and will be dearly missed by many. She was a flip flop wearing, feather in her hair, good music, good vibes, peace, love, and sunshine kind of woman. The world has lost a shining star, which means the sky has gotten a little brighter. Until We meet again, take a walk on heavens beach Nana. Stick a feather in your hair, and a shell in your pocket. We love you!

“ There's an old computer term WYSIWYG: what you see is what you get. Lisa was always totally genuine and true to herself. The love and kindness you saw in her is what you got from her.

I admired her, respected her, and am so grateful that I could call her friend.

Peace be with you.
