August 30, 1967 - September 3, 2020

Lisa Stanley Hoover, 53, of Tallahassee, passed away on September 3, 2020 peacefully surrounded by her family.

Lisa is survived by her husband, Gil Hoover, III of 21 years, two daughters Jamie (Cody), Angela (Christopher), and 1 son, Donnie Hoover, Jr. (Jodi); 9 grandchildren, Morgan and Jace (Jamie), Christopher II, Reese and Emory (Angela), Savannah, Donnie III, Joshua and Landen (Donnie), her mother Donna Hartsfield and brother Corbin Hartsfield (Jessica). Lisa was born in Tallahassee, Florida on August 30, 1967 and worked over 29 years as an Executive Assistant to the Director of Administration for the Department of State.

Lisa loved bowling, especially with her dad as her coach. One of her greatest pleasures was when she could beat him, and she always looked forward to their annual Biloxi bowling/gambling trips. She was a diehard Seminole fan and enjoyed game days with her family and friends. She also loved Nascar and cheered for the #3 car until switching to his son in the #88. Along with everything else, the beach was her happy place. She will be missed by many.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests that donations be made to Covenant Hospice (1921 Capital Circle NE, Tallahassee, FL 32308, 850-575-4998) or American Cancer Society (P.O. 22478, Oklahoma City, OK 73123, 1-800-227-2345)
