

Lorna Grace Tweedie

February 11, 1935 - February 11, 2016

Lorna Allman Tweedie of Crawfordville, FL passed away February 11, 2016 at age 81. Born in Medford, WI to Elmore (Bud) and Amy Allman, she grew up in Wisconsin, graduated from Phillips High School and the University of Wisconsin at Eau Claire. Lorna was a career early elementary school teacher in Wisconsin, Minnesota, and Germany. After retirement to Florida, she honed her skills as a watercolor artist; was active in the Apalachee Bay Yacht Club, serving in a number of positions including Commodore; was an active member of the Apalachee Bay Volunteer Fire & Rescue Department; and was the organist for Seafarers Chapel at Shell Point Beach, FL.

Lorna is survived by her sister, Emily James (Bill); nephews and nieces, Todd Boehm (Megan), William Eliot, Susan Zander (Charles), Susan Eliot; great nieces and nephews, cousins, brother-in-law and many caring friends. She was preceded in death by her husband Robert Tweedie; her parents Bud and Amy Allman; and her sisters Phyllis Eliot and Sally Boehm.

A Celebration of Life will be held on Saturday, March 5, 2016 at 11 AM at the Apalachee Bay Volunteer Fire Department, 1448 Shell Point Road, Crawfordville, Florida. Afterward, a barbecue lunch will be served.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions are requested to the donor's charity of choice.

Amber Miller of Bevis Funeral Home, Harvey-Young Chapel is assisting the family (850-926-3333 or www.bevisfh.com).