“ Grandmother always made our travel easy with the kitchen smelling good as we walked in and she always had a smile. I miss her laugh. She was a hard working woman that was always tending her garden!

“Granny, you wiped my tears, you healed my sickness with your famous potato soup, you kissed my pain away with just 1 peck, only if u could do this now, you made my favorite blueberry 5 layer cake on my birthday every year and made it with love when you could, you came to every event you could for my boys but most of all you showed us that family is sacred to love with no boundaries. I just pray that I can be half the woman and granny you were until you passed at the young age of 103. Granny I love u a bushel and a peck a hug around the neck. You will be missed but I know you are singing in heaven.

I am so sorry for your loss. I worked at Fbcw for years. I loved it in the early days when your grandparents would come in and visit. I still remember your Granddaddy saying I'm a Man and I was borned a Mann. Great sweet folks.

“ One of my favorite memories of Grandma Lottie was her repeatedly whacking Frank on the leg as he stood on my coffee table, with glass inserts!, trying to screw around with the settings on my ceiling fan! She was so embarrassed.

She was my Mother in Law and I loved her and she loved me like a daughter. I will always remember her for that. When Richard and I got married in 1978 I ask her what she preferred that I would call her. Without hesitation, she said. "Mother" is what they all call me. And she was Mother from day on she was Mother.
