

Louie Malcolm Gandy

January 11, 1935 - July 10, 2019

Louie Malcolm “Mack” Gandy was a Wakulla County resident. He passed in the early hours of July 10th. Mack retired from the Tallahassee Police Department, and spent ten years with the Wakulla County Sheriff’s Department.

To say Mack will be missed is the understatement of the century. He was charismatic, the life of every party in his signature Stetson hat, his bolo tie and cowboy boots. He always had a good story to tell, and everyone wanted to hear him tell it. Mack’s friendships were rich with long history and trust. He was generously open hearted, supporting numerous people through many ordeals over the years. Leon and Wakulla counties will not be the same without Mack Gandy’s presence.

Mack enjoyed his life on the water in Panacea, jet skiing to meet the day, his little dog companions through the years and having a Miller Lite at many small bars that peppered the path between Tallahassee and his Panacea home. Mack loved travel, and wow, did he love NASCAR! But most of all Mack treasured his three plus decades of friendship and companionship with his wife, Sally, who truly was the love of his life. Mack was never without his “girl.” Mack is survived by his wife of thirty-three years Sally Hansen-Gandy, his children, Jimmy Gandy, Donna Kay Gandy, Junior Gandy, Chris Gandy, Frank Gandy, Melissa (Missy) Lewis-Ackerman, his stepdaughter Cynthia Gunn, Sally’s two children Scott Hansen and Ann Hansen, many grandchildren and great-grand children, and sister, Mary Elizabeth Vogt. He was predeceased by one son, Glen Gandy and one sister, Ann Evans.)

“ Venny and I only knew Mr Mack a short time but in that time, he made a great impression. We have never heard him ever say a bad word about anyone. He showed compassion and accepted everyone for who they were. Loved hearing him tell his stories. His wisdom should be a example to all. He will indeed be missed. To Venny for sure.

“ Ever will forget, the day I went to oastal Corner convenience store to fill up with Gas to take Steve to TMH after a fall. He follo we'd me home & helped to get Steve get dressed. When we came home to await Surgery, Mac was there waiting for us to help get Steve in the house & into bed. Never will I forget his kindness & friendship. Whenever he saw me , he would as me if I was behaving, I would say “what would be the fun in that” & then game his standard answer “Don't get caught” Sally & family you are all in our prayers. We Love you,
