

Louie Fletcher Lancaster

April 7, 1929 - September 12, 2023

Louie F. Lancaster, a 5th generation Floridian, lived 94 years of a full life. With Hurricane Idellia heading towards him, he fell and then contracted Covid at TMH. On September 12, 2023, as the storm departed, so did he.

Louie was the youngest and last survivor of his parents' 5 children. They grew up around the Suwannee River (Lafayette County). Most of Louie's life has been spent in the Tallahassee area.

The Korean War changed his life. Louie is most proud of being awarded 3 bronze stars.

Louie was preceded in death by the love of his life, Norma Sessions Lancaster. They loved music, dancing, and each other. He also outlived his son Bill.

Left behind to cherish his memory are son Robert (Donna Gillette), two grandsons, one great granddaughter, nephews, and recent companion Junita Russell.

The family will receive friends from 12:00PM until 2:00PM on Wednesday, November 22, 2023, at Bevis Funeral Home, 200 John Knox Road in Tallahassee.

Niki Carney and Kelly Barber of Bevis Funeral Home (850-385-2193 or www.bevisfh.com) are assisting the Lancaster family with their arrangements.
