“ Grandma Lucy as my family always knew her was my grandmothers step mother. Growing up we didn't know that she wasn't actually related to any of us because she always treated you like family without a second thought. We lost touch after my grandmother Beverly passed in 2018, but I still can't make a banana pudding without remembering my Grandma Lucy teaching me how to make hers. I have a son now, adding another great great grandchild to her list.

“ I lived with Lucille and 3 of her children when I was in Tallahassee in the late 60's. A very special lady to me treated me as her own. Years later she married an great man from my home town of Jasper and she moved there. Lucille was very special person and we didn't keep in touch the last 20 years or so but she will always have a special place in my heart.

Jerry, Richard and Susie so sorry for your loss. Just remember all the good times and just how much she loved you.
