Revelation 14:12-13

12. This calls for patient endurance on the part of the saints who obey God's commandments and remain faithful to Jesus.

13. Then I heard a voice from heaven say,

“Write: Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord from now on.”

“Yes,” says the Spirit, “they will rest from their labor, for their deeds will follow them.”

Favorite Scripture

Psalm. 103:1-5

1. Bless the Lord, O my soul: and all that is within me, bless his holy name.

2. Bless the Lord, O my soul, and forget not all his benefits:

3. Who forgiveth all thine iniquities; who healeth all thy diseases;

4. Who redeemeth thy life from destruction; who crowneth thee with lovingkindness and tender mercies;

5. Who satisfieth thy mouth with good things; so that thy youth is renewed like the eagle's.

Numbers 23:10b KJV

Let me die the death of the righteous, and let my last end be like his!

Mama Adura as I fondly call you, beautiful inside and outside 🥰 She was my mum's 'mother' and so became our grandmother (my siblings and I), she will remember each and everyone of us whenever we speak with her and even ask for our children by their names and always praying for us all. I am so glad I had the privilege to spend few days with her in Tallahassee back in the year 2014 with my son Obinna. Mama, we love you so much and we will miss you but we are consoled with the fact that you are resting in the bosom of the Lord Almighty, rejoicing with the angels and even meeting your daughter 'Olufunmilola' (my mother) as you will call her.

“ Maami, Shall Be Praised.

Proverb 31: 25-31 “Strength and honor are her clothing, She shall rejoice in time to come. She opens her mouth with wisdom, And on her tongue is the law of kindness. She watches over the ways of her household. And does not eat the bread of idleness. Her children rise up and call her blessed. Her husband also, and he praises her. Many daughters have done well, But you excel them all. Charm is deceitful and beauty is passing. But a woman who fears the Lord, she shall be praised. Give her of the fruit of her hands, And let her own works praise her in the gates”. “Maami was an Angel who lived among us, A gift from God Almighty above. She showered us with kindness, and shared us her love” A wonderful mother and a prayer warrior, she taught us how to pray and entertain visitors, you will be remembered always. Jesus said, in John 14: 2 “In My Father’s house are many mansions, if it were not so, I would have told you, I go to prepare a place for you” Maami has gone to live with Jesus. Sleep well, “Sunre o. Mama Lucretia Modupe Odewumi
You are a unforgettable and valuable person in my live,especially my maiden days. Even at the period of my wedding,you are rock of support both in prayer and guidance.
You loved my siblings and i equally you loved your children, even my late mother like your sister. You are mother with worthy virtues and principles.
How we,my siblings and I, looked forward to coming your place for holidays during Papa's lifetime still lingers because of how you will treat us with care still lingers.
Live on "Maami Aladura" till we meet at the Boston of our Lord

“ What I will remember most about my beautiful grandmother is her faithfulness to prayer, the one desire of her heart was to make it to 100. Despite her health challenges the Lord was faithful to let her see 100 plus 3. She taught me that when we call on the Lord he is faithful to answer us and that no matter how low in life we may feel we are never alone or without when we have Jesus. Those characteristics are woven through all the members of our family. Thank you grandma for your prayers and your faithfulness.

“ Tribute To Our Great Mother In The Lord.

Mama, I am thankful to God for the life you lived and the role you played in my life and family. Mama Apapa road, as my family used to call you, you taught my mother to be a worker in the sanctuary and she does that till date.

I can never forget your hourly prayers. Most of what I learnt from you, I have also taught people. I am very glad I knew you, a very intelligent mother. I remember those years, when you give mama your prayer request, she wouldn't stop praying for you until you had testimonies.

Mama, we can never forget you in Sangonuga family. Mama, your life touched so many and I am certain that you shall always be remembered. Sleep well and keep resting at the bosom of the Lord Jesus.

“ Death is a change agent, it clear out the old to make room for the new, however in the path of righteousness is life and in its pathway there is no death. Proverb 12.28, by the ordination of our creator " to live is to die" you can't have one without the other, but glory be to God Almighty that Mama was one of the privileged few that God allowed to live well above 100 years, the dead never truly dead, they simply change form, our consolation is that death is not extinguishing your light, it only put out your lamp, because the dawn has come, though your song has ended but the melody still lingers on, as we continue to mourn your departure here, we are comforted by the fact that the Heavenly Hosts are welcoming you back home and even have prepared a comfortable room for you in the palace of the Angels to watch over us here before the fulness of our time, Adeiu Mama Modupe.

“ Grandma mi, what an incredible spirit you have. I remember you being so welcoming, kind and hilarious during my time in Tallahassee. Even after I left it meant the world whenever I heard your voice. I will especially miss your story telling during your prayers, every time we spoke you would pray for me extensively and in those prayers were always a story and they tickled so much but I fought hard not to laugh out loud 😂. You are indeed unforgettable. I pray that you rest well and I pray that everyone that you've left behind will grow as gracefully as you have to leave a mark as you have.

“ Dr. Caroline Oluseun Odewumi

Mami, I thank God that I came to this world through you. You are a blessing to many with your motherly love and prayers. Thank you for teaching me how to fight the battles of life with prayer. I thank God for the grace I received to care for you to the end of your life and I thank God for giving you a long life. You are a great mother in Isreal. Many know you as mama Aladura because you are a true prayer warrior. When we were young you always prayed that God would give you a long life and the grace to pilot us to where we will not be afraid in life. We praise God for granting your request. You fought the great fight, you can now have a perfect peace at the bosom of your creator.

I love you, we shall meet at the feet of Jesus Christ.
