They have two children together, Ashley and Kaylynn. During his adult years he joined the Free Masons and sprouted a 30 year community of family and friends. Through the years he stayed very dedicated to all Masonic affiliated fraternities, as well as the Masonic youth groups. He worked as a welder, owned a printing shop, was a transporter, worked on boat trailers, and a landscaper. Later in life, he met his loving partner Sharon Rines, and welcomed her family into his own. Enjoying his time traveling and being a part of the Masonic communities, as well as watching Florida State sports (GO NOLES), is how he spent his amazing years with us all.
