“ My greatest memory of Uncle Lynn is how tremendously he loved his family including my wild and crazy siblings & mom. From taking us to What-a-Burger, to eating at our home when a fought over platter full of fried chicken ended up in his lap, Lynn loved us with a joy and gentleness unsurpassed by anyone on this earth. With tears of sadness but also joy, I know he is now so enjoying the family who went before: Grandma, Grandpa, and many Kentucky folk. Keep the party going Lynn, until we get there!

“ My Uncle Lynn was such a kind and loving uncle. My first memories of him are when he moved to Clearwater and stayed with our family so he could attend his last year of high school as his parents' house was being built. He put up with me and my four siblings constant need for attention with a wonderful sense of humor. And he taught us all how to play chess. He was a great reader and he shared books with me, which I really appreciated. His love for God and family was foremost in his life.

Well done, good and faithful servant! Save us a place at the banquet table!

*Love,
Your niece Gayle*

“ I would like to let the family and friends of Lybn know that he loved the Lord dearly and made it a point to try and learn as much as he could do to be a daily missionary. Hiw zeal for reaching out to the lost, especially Muslims, was commendable and his discussion on that topic with me will remain with me for a long time. Despite his health, he took wonderful cat of his wife and grandchildren, and brought them to Maranatha as often as possible. Rejoicing that another believer has moved from his temporary tent to his permanent home!
