

M. Maxine Morgan Parramore

October 16, 1921 - October 29, 2012

Mrs. M. Maxine Morgan Parramore passed away on October 29, 2012 at Tallahassee Regional Medical Center after a period of declining health. She was born on October 16, 1921 in Adel, Georgia to Lee Tyrus and Lillian I. Calder Morgan and grew up in Valdosta, Georgia.

Mrs. Parramore was employed at the Florida Sheriff's Bureau at the time when that entity was reconfigured and enhanced as the Florida Department of Law Enforcement. She retired as a fingerprint analyst with FDLE, having great pride in that department's development into a national format for state law enforcement agencies. She was also a past manager of The Diana Shop in Thomasville, GA.

She was a member of Southside Methodist Church in Tallahassee.

She was predeceased by her beloved son, Jeffrey Michael Parramore of Tallahassee, Florida, her brother, Earl (Viola) Morgan, sisters; Frances 'Frankie' M. (John) Stokes of Apalachicola, FL., and Vivian M. (Herman) DeLoach of Valdosta, GA, and nephews, Earl and James Morgan of Valdosta. She is survived, and will be missed by nephews Ross (Mary Beth) Stokes of Hampton, VA, John Robert Stokes of Tampa, FL, James (Margaret) Stokes of Apalachicola, FL, and Thomas (Caroline) Morgan of Conyers, GA. She is also survived by nieces, Sandy DeLoach (Jimmy) Griffis of Twin Lakes, GA, Jane DeLoach Key of Locust Grove, GA, and Janet DeLoach Jackson of Valdosta, GA as well as great nephews and great-great nieces and nephews and a special friend, Brenda Douglas of Tallahassee, FL.

Mrs. Parramore's steadfast love for God, family and friends was the center of her life, but flowers, animals and nature's beauty were also her pleasures. Her refined and sweet nature touched many people in the Tallahassee community, and at Seven Hills Health and Rehabilitation Center, creating helpful and caring friends. The family is extremely grateful for their help and friendship to our aunt, Mrs. Parramore.

Visitation will be at 1:00 PM on Thursday, October 31, 2012, with the funeral immediately following at 2:00 PM. She will be buried at Roselawn Cemetery in Tallahassee next to her son.

“ My family and I are so sorry to hear of Aunt Maxine's death. My husband, Jimmy, was her nephew who preceded her in death. He always talked of his Aunt Maxine and how much he loved her, even though she stayed on him about his manners. She lived a long life, but I know she is happy to be in Heaven with her beloved son who passed away way too early. Love to all of you. Juanita Morgan

“ We are saddened to hear that Aunt Maxine has passed away. We wish we could attend the funeral but due to my wife's health condition we are unable to travel. Our thoughts and prayers are with the family as they go through this time of grief.
