

Margaret Henrietta Brosnan

September 29, 1923 - May 15, 2021

As expected, the call came. It is the one we all anxiously anticipated every 3-4 years, our new orders. We would watch as Dad read the new station. Mom would say, "just don't let it be Kansas." Our mom, a woman who could pack up 4 children and a household quicker than the most efficient of field marshals. She did it for over 30 years. Then another 30 sailing, adventuring, and loving her family. Born in Ballymoney, Co. Antrim, Northern Ireland on September 29, 1923, she was destined to roam. With her handsome young flyer in tow, she made her mark on the world. Storyteller, dress maker, comedian, sidekick; she was the off-key music to our story.

Today she answered the call. Her last orders. It is the call for an appointment from which she will not be returning. The new assignment includes a reunion with her beloved Neil and family and friends she has not seen in a long time. She has already packed and said her goodbyes to her children Neal (Diane), Cathy (Phil), Dan (Maureen), Susan (Rod) and her baby sister, Terry. She left us with amazing grandchildren, nephews, and great-grandchildren to share her stories.

Godspeed Margaret Henrietta (Onre) McNally Brosnan (1923-2021). We promise it won't be Kansas.

Kelly Barber of Bevis Funeral Home (850-385-2193 or www.bevisfh.com) is assisting the Brosnan family with their arrangements.

“ Mrs. Brosnan, aka Mrs, “B”, was my high school friend’s mother, occasional second mother to me and in later years - a dear friend. I will always remember her innate sparkle, impish blue eyes and a smile that made everything ok. I can still hear her exclaim “ oh you girls!”, when Susan would tell her about a planned adventure or hair-brained idea.
I know I will see you again, you and Me. “B”. Until then, fly with the Angels and know that I loved you so very much.
Susan, please find comfort in knowing your mom was cherished by myself and many others. Big hugs to you and your family. ❤️

“ Because God is faithful we can rejoice for my Mom. She is with Him because she had faith in Him. She believed. I will see her "all of a sudden" and that is why I grieve with such hope.

Onre will walk out today as she was before. She now walks with beauty all around her.

Aunt Onre will be remembered by me as a most kind and beautiful woman. The cornerstone of the Brosnan clan. Condolences to Neil jr., Catherine, Susan and Daniel.

“ Mrs. Brosnan was my best friend's mother. She took a bunch of us 12 year olds to the Orange Show, the county fair for San Bernardino County. Our school dance group was performing. After the show she let us enjoy the carnival. She was the most fun mom of all our moms. She treated me like family. Years later she welcomed me and my husband at her home in Delaware for a break on our way to backpack through Europe. When we left she gave us a sign she'd made to help us hitchhike to New York for our flight to Europe. She was an angel. There's no doubt in my mind. She more than earned her rest in grace.
