

Margaret C. Malone

February 28, 1925 - September 24, 2011

Margaret C. Malone, 86. of Tallahassee, Florida, passed away September 24, 2011. She was born February 28, 1925, in Kearny, New Jersey. Marge married John Malone in 1950. Upon his death 1985, she moved to Tallahassee and spent the rest of her days residing only a block away from her two grandchildren.

With employment as various as telephone operator, bar owner and college admissions clerk, she also dedicated over twenty years in food service at Canopy Oaks and Springwood Elementary Schools.

Marge will be remembered for her uniqueness in spirit and her kind heart. From adventures in babysitting, to dancing to Jerry Lew Lewis, to spending the day cooking bounteous family feasts, she loved to laugh (often at herself), gathered inspiration from the lives of young people, and found comfort in the warmth of family and friends. She lived every day in the joy of laughter until the tragic final stages of Alzheimer's disease brought her to rest.

She is survived by her two sons, Bob Malone and wife, Tracy, of Tallahassee, Tom Malone and wife, Mary, of Baltimore, and her devoted grandchildren, Kristi and Cory Malone, of Tallahassee.

Services will be held on Saturday, October 1, at 11:00 am, St. Louis Catholic Church, 3640 Fred George Road, Tallahassee, Florida.

In consideration of her lifelong love of animals, donations can be made to Goose Creek Wildlife Sanctuary at 3400 Williams Road, Tallahassee, FL 32311. Bevis Funeral Home (850) 385-2193, is in charge of the arrangements.
