“ Margaret was a very sweet, dear and precious lady and friend to me. I will always remember and cherish within my heart all of the many times that Margaret, my mom and I sat around in the office or outside on the porch at Woodsmoke just laughing and talking with each other. I will always remember and will miss her beautiful bright smile that she had on her face. Margaret loved the Tn. mountains and something simple as a little flower. She loved those whom she went to church with at Jennie Moore Presbyterian Church in Flag Pond, Tn. With tears in my eyes I say: Margaret I love you and I will miss you very much. I will see you again on the other side of this life someday when God calls me home.
Dick I will certainly be thinking of you and praying for you in your time of sorrow. Wherever I saw you there was Margaret also. Margaret was a special little lady to all of us. We will miss her so much.

Love Always,

“ Dick and Margaret were summer residents of our area in the Tennessee Mountains. We will certainly miss Margaret at all the Watauga Valley Art League shows with Dick. They were always together. Bless you, Dick. We are so sad for you as we think of your (and our) loss. With love and prayers, Patsy Reading

“Margaret was my best friend. I will always cherish the memories of sharing, laughing, crying, and eating with Margaret on the porch of Woodsmoke Campground, while her husband attended art classes under the instruction of my husband, Urban Bird. The last words she and I spoke to each other over the phone on May 8, 2011 (Mother's Day) was, "I love you." Those words will remain in my heart along with my best friend, Margaret.

Dick, we are thinking of you even though we are separated across states. Urban and I, Vega and Richard, Alice and Aldebaran hold your hand in spirit.

*Love,
Damie Bird
