My prayers go out to Marie's family. I worked with her in the Accounting Department at the City of Tallahassee years ago and then ran into her at Ft. Braden when my kids were in school. I always looked forward to seeing her when I had to go in the office there because she was such a sweet lady.

“ It's never a easy or right thing to say at a time like this. My heart goes out to all sides of the family. Some I was close to some I didn't really know so much. I know Mrs Scott touched many people...Professionally and personally . Please take the time to heal in your own way. Much love prayers and thoughts
