

Marjorie Ruth Collar

October 17, 1927 - September 13, 2016

Marjorie Ruth Collar, 88, beloved wife, mother, grandmother and great-grandmother, died peacefully in her home in Tallahassee on September 13th 2016. She was born in Pontiac Michigan and moved to Lake Worth Florida with her family in 1941. She attended Lake Worth High School where she met her future husband, Roger. She attended three years at the University of Michigan, then married, and finished her bachelor's degree in English at the University of Miami. After teaching English at Seacrest High in Palm Beach County for one and a half years, Marjorie and Roger moved to Tallahassee in 1951 where they raised five children.

Marjorie made many friends and influenced many lives as an English teacher at Leon High School in Tallahassee. She was also past chairman of the Altar Guild at St. John's Episcopal Church, past president of the auxiliary at TMH, and past president of the ladies Golf Association at Capital City Country Club. She loved spending time at Tranquility, their summer home in Franklin North Carolina. She also enjoyed gardening, reading, playing cards and golfing. Marjorie is survived by her loving husband of 68 years, Roger, and her children Marilyn Munyon (Norm), Linda Abraham (Ansley), Paul Collar, Susan Ross, and Virginia Collar. She has eight beautiful grandchildren and four great-grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her parents and her sister, Phyllis Petrich.

A memorial service will be held at St. John's Episcopal Church in downtown Tallahassee on Tuesday, September 27th at 3pm, followed by a reception at the church.

Kelly Barber of Bevis Funeral Home (850-385-2193, www.bevisfh.com) is assisting the family with their arrangements.
