“ Marti was so much fun to be around. Always upbeat and positive even when she wasn't feeling well. She was so kind and generous. She was a part of our Wednesday Morning Christ's Church Seniors Group. We had a charter bus trip planned to go to the Ark Encounter and Creation Museum in Kentucky. She wanted so bad to go with us, but her health kept her from going. But, she found out how many were going on the trip and made goody bags for each one, even an extra for the bus driver. They were themed with little dinosaur cookies and fun games. It made her feel she was a part of the trip. I was able to visit her when she was in rehab or the hospital. That was the last time I saw her, as she was being transported from the hospital to Cypress Village. So glad I got to pray with her and give her a hug. Thankful I will see her again one day in heaven. Prayers for all the family. What a very special lady to have in your lives. God bless!

“ I met Marti when she came to my sister-in-loves beauty salon @ Pablo Towers on Wednesday morning. Marti was a pleasure to know and share with she was a sweet Christian friend. At Christmas time she would come to my church in downtown Jacksonville 1st Baptist find where we were sitting and enjoy our music programs with us. This year she joined our Lords Heavenly choir.in time for Christmas with Jesus. We went to the Ark this year she had been previously with a group from our church and told us how much she enjoyed it. Your loss is truly heavens gain she will be missed. Love Sharon Sundie

“ When we lived in Palm Valley and Marjorie lived at the beach, we would go visit her She was in a difficult relationship and was very lonely. We invited her to come to our home for Bible study, which she did. She was lovable and very loving. Definitely, will be missed.
