“ Dear Jane,

You were always my sister: we played house almost daily; we went to the same schools; we graduated there only a year apart. But when I left Connersville for college, you stayed and worked as legal secretary. Then, when my husband Bill and I moved to Florida, you came to stay with us for just over a year. After your extended visit, you moved back to C-ville where you too found your spouse Bruce. We then both started raising our individual families, but stayed close in mind and heart, yet eventually not too far apart physically with you in Tallahassee and me in Jacksonville. When our children became more self-sufficient, you worked for the state of Florida and I became an elementary school teacher.

In sickness and in health, you were always my sister and I will always love you!

Love, Alice
